

2010 Workshop Overview

The following workshops will be held at the Oregon Convention Center.

25th Annual Symposium on Direct Supervision Management

Sunday, May 23, 2010

8:15 a.m.–11:15 a.m.

- Principles and Dynamics of Direct Supervision: Principles 1–4
- On the Line—The Direct Supervision Unit Officer's View

2 p.m.–4 p.m.

- Principles and Dynamics of Direct Supervision: Principles 5–9
- Effective Followership

Additional Workshops

9:15 a.m.–11:15 a.m.

- Jail Evacuation: Failing To Plan, and Failing To Practice Your Plan, Is Planning To Fail!
- Discharge Planning and SOAR for Inmates with Mental Illness
- Building a Future and Leaving a Legacy: How To Focus Your Leadership Effort and Get Things Done

2 p.m.–4 p.m.

- Work-Related Stress: Prevent It, Manage It, or Die Trying
- Issues in Medical Risk Management
- Amendments to the Americans with Disabilities Act: Translating New Legal Requirements into Practice

Monday, May 24, 2010

8 a.m.–10 a.m.

- Education-Based Discipline
- Program Models That Work
- Trends in Indian Country Jails
- Triangle of Professionalism—The PRP Approach
- New Jail Planning: Getting It Right—Part I NIC CO-SPONSORED

2 p.m.–4 p.m.

- Impact of Illegal Immigration on Local Jails
- Sexuality in the Jail: Issues with Managing Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Intersexual, and Transgender Offenders
- Strengthening Jail-Based Programs Through Community Partnerships and Skill-Based Assessment (ACT/WorkKeys®)
- Indian Country Jails: The Influence of Culture on Reentry and Operations
- New Jail Planning: Getting It Right—Part II NIC CO-SPONSORED

Tuesday, May 25, 2010

8 a.m.–10 a.m.

- Jail Core Standards: Preparing for Inspections
- Community Corrections: Reducing Costs and Improving Outcomes
- Special Population Management: Reduce Risk, Enhance Safety!
- Certification: One-On-One
- Practical Guide To Preventing In-Custody Deaths and the Importance of Death Reviews
- Transition from Jail to the Community: Implementation—Part I NIC CO-SPONSORED

2 p.m.–4 p.m.

- Attracting and Hiring Quality Applicants Through Effective Recruiting and Testing Practices
- Chaplains, Volunteers, and Security: How Can You Balance Them?
- Overview of Health Information Technology
- So You Really Want To Be a Supervisor in Direct Supervision?
- Transition from Jail to the Community: Implementation—Part II NIC CO-SPONSORED

Wednesday, May 26, 2010

8 a.m.–10 a.m.

- Large-Scale Medical Emergency Preparedness
- What an Odd Couple: Treatment and Incarceration—It Works!
- Improving Staff Efficiency and Effectiveness with New Staffing Analysis Tools
- Inmate Behavior Management: It Really Does Work! Part I

NIC CO-SPONSORED

10:15 a.m.–12:15 p.m.

- Certification: It's Time to Take the Challenge!
- Why and How To Have a Successful Risk Management Program
- Inmate Behavior Management: It Really Does Work! Part II

NIC CO-SPONSORED

1:30 p.m.–3:30 p.m.

- Understanding and Handling the Inmate with Mental Illness: Importance of Medication and Its Potential Side Effects
- Women's Storybook Project of Texas

1:30 p.m.–5:30 p.m.

- Legal Issues—Part I

NIC CO-SPONSORED

Thursday, May 27, 2010

The following workshops will be held at the Hilton Portland.

8 a.m.–10 a.m.

- Planning Your Career

8 a.m.–Noon

- Legal Issues—Part II

NIC CO-SPONSORED

This Workshop Overview is tentative and subject to change.

Go to www.aja.org for latest updates.